City of Fort Pierce Commissioners Seek Historic Preservation Board Member Submittals

Fort Pierce City Commissioners are looking for civic-minded residents to serve on various advisory boards and committees, including an immediate need for individuals to serve on the Historic Preservation Board.

This quasi-judicial board is a seven (7) member board appointed by the City Commission, two (2) of which are alternate members and meets the last Monday of each month at 6:00 p.m. Members are professionals who are generally from the disciplines of architecture, history, architectural history, planning, archaeology, real estate, law, engineering, construction, or any other historic preservation related disciplines such as urban planning, American studies, American civilization, cultural geography and cultural anthropology. Each member of the board shall be a resident of the city or operate a business in the city during the term of appointment and shall be appointed to a term of three (3) years.

Applications are available on the City's website at <http://www.cityoffortpierce.com/pitchIn.html> (click on the right-hand side to open link) or contact the Planning Department at 772.460.2200 x247.
