City of Fort Pierce to Hold Wallace Sample Memorial Dedication Ceremony

The City of Fort Pierce will recognize Former Fort Pierce Mayor Wallace Sample at a memorial dedication ceremony, Wednesday, May 15, 2013, 11:00 a.m., 600 N. Indian River Drive, Veterans Memorial Park along the south end of the River Walk.

Sample served as Mayor from 1953-1954 and was instrumental in creating the waterfront park at that time known as Fort Pierce Indian River Memorial Park which today attracts visitors to many city assets in the area. He was a municipal court judge and served as circuit court judge from 1959 to 1979.

A stone monument and bronze plaque at the brick-paved plaza along the waterfront walkway was funded by the City's Art in Public Places. The event is open to the public.
