City of Fort Pierce Recognizes 9/11 12th Anniversary CeeCee Ross Lyles Memorial

The City of Fort Pierce will hold a twelfth anniversary memorial service to honor CeeCee Ross Lyles who perished on Flight 93 that crashed in a Pennsylvania field during the September 11, 2001 terrorist attack. The memorial service will be held at the Liberty Garden, where the City placed a life-sized bronze statue of CeeCee Ross Lyles overlooking the Indian River, 600 N. Indian River Drive, Fort Pierce, 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, September 11, 2013.

Born and raised in Fort Pierce, Lyles attended Fort Pierce Westwood High School and later served for six years as a Fort Pierce police officer. In 2000, she moved to Fort Myers to pursue her goal as a flight attendant. The event is open to the public and will remember and honor all those who lost their lives on September 11, 2001.
